HAZEL GREEN, KY.: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1885.

LOCAL NEWS.

Buy your bacon, mutton and beef of Caskey & Pieratt. Spot cash to one and all.

Hon. W. P. Taulbee will please accept our thanks for public documents on Civil Service Reform, &c.

A hint is sufficient. Those owing us must call and settle their accounts. Caskey & Pieratt.

Parties anxious to marry, and wishing to advertise the fact, will now on be charged regular rates.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, &c. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

James Brown has returned from his first visit to Mt. Sterling, and informs the people that Hazel Green ain't a little bit compared to that place.

The road between here and Maytown is almost impassable, and the magistrate who is now filling the shoes of the County Judge, should ascertain why it is not in condition. Later—The judge has returned.

The sawyer at the Champion Mill, across the river from Hazel Green, says if he should be so unfortunate as to go to "hell" after dark, that he would like to have George Barker as a fireman.

Red River got on a grand old "high up" on Wednesday morning last, which prevented the Salversville mail from leaving this point, but she has true down at the head, "until you can just see her a little bit."

The cupola of the Christian Church has just been handsomely adorned with new paint, and shines like the "dollar of our daddies." Greenville Ward, of this place, had the contract, and did the work in a satisfactory manner.

Married—At the residence of Calhoun Nickell, in Morgan county, June 18th, H. H. Wilson, of Breathitt county, to Miss Josephine Nickell, daughter of Mr. H. H. Wilson. They have the best wishes of their many friends in Hazel Green.

The Presbyterian Church at this place will soon be ready for service. The lumber for the wainscoting has been purchased, and work begun. The friends of the church at all points have been appealed to for assistance towards furnishing seats.

Our Spencer correspondent writes that Amanda Brown, colored, who, some three weeks since, cut and killed Rosa Bigstaff, colored, at a negro festival, was on Saturday last sentenced by the Montgomery Circuit Court to the penitentiary for three years. This makes six up this term.

During a conversation in which several were engaged, last Sunday, Hon. D. S. Godsey quoted, "A young man is not far from ruin when he can say without blushing: I care not what you think of me." It would be well for us all to "treasure in our memory" this saying. Boys, remember it.

Henry Wilson, of this place, while putting up a piece of post and rail fence one day last week, got the index and middle fingers of the right hand in the top mortise of a post, and the panel falling came near breaking both fingers. He says he is badly lacerated, and he will lose the nails of them.

Rev. Barney Blankenship having failed to put in an appearance at the Pines, on Sunday last, the duty of organizing a Sunday school at that place devolved upon Jas. A. McClain, a Bible student of Richmond College, who is home for a short time on a vacation, and it is said that his work was perfect in all its details.

There will be three funerals preached on the first Sunday in July, at the church on Upper Grassy. Of Mrs. Wm. Toliver, by Rev. Dr. Gevedon; of Mrs. Daniel Toliver, by Rev. D. H. Fallon; and of Mrs. Floyd Toliver, by Rev. E. F. Mickel. This being Mr. Mickel's regular appointment, he will also preach at 3 p. m. on the Saturday preceding.

The special term of the Magoffin Criminal Court adjourned last Thursday. A number of penal and two felony cases were tried. Wm. Joseph, charged with the murder of Garrett Arnett, upon whose case the jury failed to agree at the April term, was tried and received a sentence of seven years in the penitentiary. John Walters, charged with shooting with intent to kill, was acquitted.

If we do not have better roads for strangers to travel over we need expect people to come here, even if we had a gold mine, and the people should rise in their might and demand of the authorities that they be put in condition, especially the one from here to Breathitt. We hope our citizens will stir up all officials who have the roads in charge, and see that the next grand jury does its duty.

A little son of Mrs. Dick Gibbs, living on the dry ridge about 16 miles from this place, in Menifee county, fell from a tree last Wednesday evening and was killed. He fell a distance of 40 measured feet, and Dr. B. Gardner, of this place, who was called to see him, says he received internal injuries, which renders his recovery exceedingly doubtful. Dr. Gardner says the fracture of the bone was a very bad one. He set the limb, and left the little sufferer doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Dr. J. Mason Kash, one of our most prominent physicians, and a good citizen generally, is now confined to his room with inflammatory sore eyes, his suffering being most unbearable. Indeed it is feared that his eyes are unfortunely. The good people of Hazel Green should see that he receives good attention, and remember that he has never been called to visit the sick that he fears are unfortunely. Love thy neighbor as thyself, and see that Dr. Kash has every attention and comfort.

Personal Paragraphs.

Hon. J. M. Kash and Henry L. Godsey, of this place, are attending court at Hazard this week.

Kelly R. Day, who spent a week in Mt. Sterling with relatives and friends, has returned home.

Misses Maggie and Kate Amyx passed through town yesterday en route home for a two weeks' visit.

Green Trimble, Jr., and Clarence Turner, both of Mt. Sterling, are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Our better seven-eighths will leave on Thursday for their friends and relatives in Mt. Sterling and Lexington.

Judge G. B. Swango has returned home, having, at Louisville, abandoned the idea of going to Hot Springs until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Corder, who were absent on a visit to John Day's last week, have returned to Hazel Green, and are visiting J. Taylor Day.

Jerry Cockrill and family, of Mt. Sterling, Miss Jennie Sharp, of Bourbon, and Miss H. C. Herndon, of Morgan county, are visiting Swango spring.

Rev. D. H. Fallon and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in Hazel Green, the guest of W. P. Trimble. It being his regular appointment on Saturday morning and evening to good congregations.

Mt. Sterling County Court.

(Mt. Sterling Gazette.)

There was a slim crowd in town, the smallest we believe we have ever seen on court day, and business generally was very dull. There was a complaint on all sides, among merchants and stock dealers. The rain on Sunday night probably kept a great many people at home, as Monday was a splendid tobacco season, as they term it. And again the fact of Circuit Court being in session probably kept a great many farmers out of town, who have an aversion to serving on juries. There is no doubt but there is a general business depression all over the country, and we cannot hope to escape from it.

J. W. Wilson, auctioneer, reports about 500 head of cattle on the market, mostly rough, mountain stock. Yearlings brought $8.00, 2-year-olds from $15 to $25, 15 yearling mares brought $45.00 per head. About 50 plug horses on the market, bringing from $30 to $50. There were no good horses put up. There were 400 or 500 sheep on the market, but none sold publicly. They were held at $1.50 to $2 per head.

The citizens of this place were treated to a rare musical treat on Thursday night last by Rev. E. P. Mickel, as organist, and David Morse, as violinist. The affair was an impromptu one for a select party of Mrs. H. C. Herndon's friends, but the night being delightful and the window boistered, the people on the outside were partakers of the enjoyable music as well as those in the house. It is hoped that Messrs. Mickel and Morse will repeat the programme of entertainment during the summer months, and as an inducement to do so we would suggest that the vocal talent of the town also be brought into requisition, and a concert given, the benefits accruing from it to go to the several churches equally. Let some enterprising lady get up a choir and get up the concert. The price of admission could be placed at a figure which would enable all to attend, and the fund raised, though small, would help all the churches just that much. We will appoint Mrs. Nannie Herndon to secure the talent, and she in turn may call into requisition a lady of each of the churches to help her. Let us have the concert by all means, and have it now while the nights are beautiful. And one thing more, don't allow any dead heads to enter thereon.

Col. L. M. Day, of Daysborough, left for Hazard last Friday morning where he is engaged in an extensive land suit. Parties wishing to take THE HERALD can pay Col. Day for it, or send it to him, and give him their names. We sincerely hope the good people of that section will assist in helping along THE HERALD, and if they subscribe liberally, we will be assured that they always have an advocate in it for anything they wish advanced. They should, therefore, walk up and pay their dollar and take it on one year, or all other kind of payment doing most for them. That paper is THE HERALD, and no mistake—and when we say it is the cheapest county paper in the State, let it be proved by the fact that it is the opinion of both the press and the public of this Commonwealth.

What about a mail service that consumes 5000 pounds in carrying a letter 55 miles? Cleveland's administration is proving an admirable one, but that of Vilas, postmaster general, is Vilas the Star-Route Director. He has a line established from this place to Hindman, in Knott county, and if we had a regular mail route the chances are that the people of that county could be rescued from barbarism. The route should run up Red River to Rousseau, and thence on to Hindman, and should be at least tri-weekly. When people play a government to do a service, they should think that the government shall perform it, and in their name we demand it. In short, if Vilas can't have it done properly, we will see that he has it done one in the place who is not so Vilas he is.

The surveyors on the State road between Hazel Green and Maytown, are reported to be ready to start the following from the Revised Statutes, Sec. 42, of article 1, chapter 94, reads: "When the surveyor of a public road shall fail to perform his duty, he shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $15, recoverable by indictment before a grand jury." The special term of Wolfe Circuit Court will commence on the 2nd of May in July, and those who have the supervision of roads, will do well to take the hint contained in the above, or they may hear something rough, weighing about what fifty silver dollars would tip the scales at. We must have better roads, and we hope those men who have been appointed to keep them in repair will attend to the matter at once.

Does advertising pay? Well, we should smile. R. A. Childers, of Maytown, put an advertisement in THE HERALD a short time since, and after the first issue got some customers from the other side of Red River, from a section never before dealing in Maytown, who purchased a large bill of goods there. He told him that they saw the advertisement in THE HERALD, but hardly believed that goods could be sold so cheap. Dick convinced them that such was a fact, and they went home determined never more to be without their country paper. Merchants throughout the mountains should follow Dick's example, sell goods cheap, and let the people know it through THE HERALD, which goes into more households than any paper ever did before.

A young man living on Gillmore came to town last Thursday, and after making some purchases and arriving at home, discovered that he had lost his pocket book. He thought it was lost to Hazel Green, but it was not. The same day a young lady, of this place, lost her pocket book while out shopping. Inasmuch as the two have for some time been recognized as sweethearts, and a remarkable coincidence, and plainly showed that their thoughts were elsewhere than on their pocket books. In each case their thoughts were of the absent one, and to prevent a like catastrophe, it has been suggested that they marry and look out for one common interest.

An effort will be made by the citizens between here and Rothwell to have a post-office established at that place. It would be to the interest and for the good of the service, and would greatly enhance our mail facilities. With the established stage-line, which in all probability will carry the mail, for this section. As the case now stands, the mail is put off the cars at Cornwell, one mile below, and the stage would be extra every day, to get the mail, then return to Rothwell and get waiting passengers. By all means let the mail be put off at Rothwell, and that, too, right speedily.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

WOLFE COUNTY.

GILLMORE, JUNE 20.

Corn is looking well. Some crops are in the weeds, owing to the recent wet weather.

The widow Mrs. W. B. Ely, who has been sick for some time, we are glad to state is thought to be some better. Her father, Jas. Williams, returned home this morning.

Robt. F. Ely has a pocket-comb which he bought in Hazel Green, seventeen years ago, which he has carried and had in constant use ever since, and which is a good comb yet.

Uncle Phillip Little, of this place, while being corn for his son, Geo. Little, on the 15th inst., fainted, being overcome with the heat, and was carried to the shade. The old man is now 80 years of age, and does more work than most young men. He was born and raised on this creek, and once owned the larger portion of it, but has long since lost his fortune and is now living in reduced circumstances. UNCLE KEMUS.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN, JUNE 20.

E. B. May has returned home from a visit to Bath county.

Farmers are very busy working over their corn the last time.

W. W. Swango's wife, of Bath county, is visiting her brother-in-law, J. C. Swango, of this place.

Ellis and Edna Day, Judge Day's daughters, of Mt. Sterling, are visiting their grandfather, Arch. Day.

Wheat is almost an entire failure. Arch. Day is the only man that has any wheat, scarcely, in this county.

Mrs. Isaac Murphy, of Grassy, has returned from a visit, of about one week, to her sister, Mrs. J. J. Seaton, of Bath.

Judge Day and lady, of Mt. Sterling, will arrive here next Monday to spend a few weeks with the judge's father, A. Day.

We would again remind our people that if they prosper in an educational point of view, they must build a comfortable school-house.

James L. S. Davidson, of Hazel Green, has been at work on the Methodist Church for the last week, and so far has shown himself to be a first-class workman.

Rev. John Thomas, of Booneville, passed through here last week en route to Hope, where his fourth quarterly meeting is to be held by W. H. Childers, P. E.

James J. Cannoy and family passed through town last Friday on their way to Magoffin county, where they will spend a few weeks. Mrs. Cannoy's father, Hon. Reuben Patrick.

E. J. Rogers, blacksmith, of this place, who has long since acted the part of a wise man, by putting his card in THE HERALD, reports everything lovely in his line of business. He reports that S. M. Tuttle, ex-sheriff of Wolfe county, is going to bring over his mules to get them shod. He requests us that that ox-shoeing is also a specialty with him.

Joe M. Pieratt, of this place, called on our correspondent to day, and reported that he had 10 acres of corn waist high; that he had worked over the last time, and said that he had a boy along the last time he plowed over the corn to pick up the ears that broke off. We would remind you, Mr. Editor, that he is a brother of John H. Pieratt, of this place.

There are a number of applicants for the Maytown school. Prominently among them we would mention Miss Maggie Amyx, of Mt. Sterling, Miss Willie Lad, of West Liberty, Miss Maggie Lad, now of Hazel, formerly of Harrison county, and Edgar Kash, of Red River. All so far as our correspondent knows are worthy and deserving, but it is an evident fact that all cannot get the school. Jordan Wills, Henry Neff and R. P. Dennis are the trustees, and the patrons of this district may be assured that they will use a wise selection, and one that will reflect credit upon themselves and the district that they represent.

SPENCER COUNTY.

EZEL, JUNE 22.

Miss Sue Lucy will visit White Oak next week.

B. M. Pieratt's new dwelling will open greatly to the appearance of our village.

It is reported that Jeff Oakley has discovered a gold mine, but we think it is only a "sample."

The young folks of this place do not think it necessary to pass any resolutions, for they all say they will marry when they get a chance.

The married and single ladies of this place are very much interested in the silk-putting question. We warn the young gentlemen to keep a sharp look out for hat-linings, ties and cravats are in danger.

Mrs. Alice Lacy and Miss Willie Samples have been attending the Swango spring, and speak in the highest terms of the water and accommodations. They also say the bath-house will be a great improvement when completed. ANONYMOUS.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

FROZEN CREEK, JUNE 22.

We are having plenty of wet weather in this county at present. So much rain has fallen that nearly all the farmers are behind with their crops.

John C. M. Day caught a cat-fish, one day last week, which measured two feet in length, and weighed about nine pounds. It is a good time to fish in the Kentucky river now, as the recent rains have made the water muddy.

Born—June 19, to the wife of Marion Bruner, three daughters, "Memphis," second, "Honorary members," and third, "Dis-honorary members."

Those present took membership as follows: "Honorary members," "Dis-honorary members," "Honorary members," or those willing to carry on a flirtation, K. B. Day, J. H. Trimble, Geo. H. Swann, W. B. Kash, J. H. Swango, Edgar Kash, "Dis-honorary members," or those past all hope of wedlock, R. B. Gardner, G. N. Oiler, J. Taylor White.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That all members of the Ladies' Mutual Aid Society, who are forbidden visiting members—To visit us, or to be visited by us.

2d. That the Maytown Matrimonial Association be requested to furnish a list of the desirable marriageable young ladies of Morgan, those who are young, pretty and smart—in return for which our secretary is requested to furnish them with like documents from Wolfe.

3d. That the members of the first class will not wait for offers, but will make them after a short time, and that no one shall be elected through, against all opposition from rival associations.

4th. That the "Honorary members" are hereby tendered our heartfelt sympathy, and that they be treated with the honor and respect which their age and experience demand.

5th. That the "Dis-honorary members" are hereby tendered our heartfelt sympathy, and that they be treated with the honor and respect which their age and experience demand.

6th. That all young, pretty, smart mountain girls are earnestly requested to send name, residence, age, complexion, height, color of hair and eyes, and photograph to the secretary, who will at once assign to the most suitable young man of this association the duty of opening a correspondence.

7th. That THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and Licking Valley Scorchers are requested to publish the proceedings of this association.

On motion the meeting adjourned, sine die. HENRY F. PIERATT, President. GEO. H. MCCLAIN, Treas. of Photos.

Husbands wanted—By twenty-four beautiful marriageable young ladies and widows of Frenchburg. Wives wanted for our young men—none! none!! May-

Matrimonial Association please take notice.

(Charge this adv. to J. J. Byrne and G. W. Moore.)

The Presbyterian and Christian churches here have gone to work in earnest to build church-houses. Each have secured a beautiful lot. The Christian Church has most of the lumber on the ground and will go to work forthwith, and we hope in a few months to be no longer behind our sister towns in neat and commodious houses of worship.

Frank Ostelle, a Frenchman, from "Virginia," has removed property in our burg and will remove here in a few days, intending to locate and engage in the culture of grapes and other fruits. We think this country cannot be excelled in most of the fruits—peaches never failing in most of the county. We hope Mr. Ostelle will be successful and induce many others of his countrymen to settle among the fine country of the French, Swiss and German, added to the certainty of the crops, would certainly make it a profitable industry here.

ROTHWELL, JUNE 19.

Born—On the 15th, to the wife of Berry T. Oiler, a son.

J. F. Osborn went to Winchester last week on business.

Miss Lucinda Kash was visiting at Cornwell last week.

We have of "taters," peas and other "sich" garden "sass" a-plenty.

There is an effort being made to establish a post office at this point.

John S. Hays gave us a call one day last week. He was on his return from a pleasure trip to New York City.

Charles A. Turner passed up last week to Wolfe and Morgan counties, to set up some movers sold by him for A. Hoffman.

If we were not under promise we would tell of a wedding that is to take place at an early day, but we will keep quiet until we know we will be "asked."

Thomas A. Combs has been suffering with toothache for several days. He refuses to have it pulled, as the doctor tried it some days ago and pulled a sound tooth.

Yes, Brother "On The Wing," I have laid by my crop of wedlock, and a prospect never before has been known. I am confident that such stock will yield two wheelbarrows and a tongue for a sewing machine. Brother don't discourage the burs in the matrimonial association, ere your eyes deceive you, and when the cake is passed, you will be eternally looked over.

LONGFELLOW.

HARRIS, JUNE 19.

Dr. Elmer Northcutt is very busy waiting on the sick.

All the farmers of our section are boasting of their fine young corn.

Born—On the 16th inst., to the wife of Frank Goss, a girl. Frank is happy.

F. C. Bedford has received a voucher from Uncle Sam, for $1,000, for injuries received in the war.

Married—On the 14th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, G. W. Eggleston, J. M. Adams officiating.

A seven-year-old son of Dick Gibbs fell from a tree, forty feet from the ground, breaking his thigh and mashing his body considerably. It is thought that he will not live.

On last Tuesday night dogs broke in on a small flock of sheep belonging to John Davis; killing them all but one. John was lucky enough to kill one of the blood-fellows. T. C. W.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

SPENCER STATION, JUNE 20.

We have just had a good rain, and corn and oats look fine.

Farmers are busy in their corn, and hands are scarce at this place.

The merchants at this place report a good crop of wheat, and think money is getting to be more plentiful.

James J. Cannoy and family are off for a visit to Maytown and Salversville. His brother Tom is holding the fort while they are gone.

Your correspondent was at Mt. Sterling Monday and it was the quietest court I ever witnessed. Some drove their cattle home, and others got grass for their next court. The Hazel Green sales "beat 'em all."

I cannot see why the men of Montgomery, Bath and other places who have stock do not visit them, for they have first-class stock and any kind you want.

I saw the Gazette correspondent went in on the Maytown Association. I will just say he is mistaken. He says he thinks they will never have a chance to violate the first resolution, but I know he is "a little off" when he says that. Then of the "little resolution," that they will have to wait until the fair sex (from what he has heard from the young ladies). Some of them have been addressed, since the organization, by a fair and beautiful lady as the moon ever shone upon, and concur with the band. He has been informed by the wrong one. I am thankful to the young ladies of West Liberty for their support of the Maytown Matrimonial Association, and give their hand to its support. Hoping "On The Wing" will remain silent in the future as to the band I am.

Bachelors' Relief Association.

The young men of Hazel Green in convention assembled, elected Henry F. Pieratt, President, and Geo. H. McClain, Secretary, and organized the Bachelors' Relief Association.

On motion the association was constituted into three classes, viz: first, "Members," second, "Honorary members," and third, "Dis-honorary members."

Those present took membership as follows: "Honorary members," "Dis-honorary members," "Honorary members," or those willing to carry on a flirtation, K. B. Day, J. H. Trimble, Geo. H. Swann, W. B. Kash, J. H. Swango, Edgar Kash, "Dis-honorary members," or those past all hope of wedlock, R. B. Gardner, G. N. Oiler, J. Taylor White.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That all members of the Ladies' Mutual Aid Society, who are forbidden visiting members—To visit us, or to be visited by us.

2d. That the Maytown Matrimonial Association be requested to furnish a list of the desirable marriageable young ladies of Morgan, those who are young, pretty and smart—in return for which our secretary is requested to furnish them with like documents from Wolfe.

3d. That the members of the first class will not wait for offers, but will make them after a short time, and that no one shall be elected through, against all opposition from rival associations.

4th. That the "Honorary members" are hereby tendered our heartfelt sympathy, and that they be treated with the honor and respect which their age and experience demand.

5th. That the "Dis-honorary members" are hereby tendered our heartfelt sympathy, and that they be treated with the honor and respect which their age and experience demand.

6th. That all young, pretty, smart mountain girls are earnestly requested to send name, residence, age, complexion, height, color of hair and eyes, and photograph to the secretary, who will at once assign to the most suitable young man of this association the duty of opening a correspondence.

7th. That THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and Licking Valley Scorchers are requested to publish the proceedings of this association.

On motion the meeting adjourned, sine die. HENRY F. PIERATT, President. GEO. H. MCCLAIN, Treas. of Photos.
